

JOHANNESBURG JUNIOR COUNCIL

As Parktown Boys' High School has been involved in the JJC for many years, it is appropriate to give you some background on the workings of this body.

The council liaises with the city council, NGO's and other stakeholders to create a platform for the youth to influence perceptions on issues directly affecting them. They furthermore use the opportunities created for them to uplift others in their communities.

These councilors are role models for younger learners and specifically their fellow youth in grade 11.

The JJC has committees such as marketing, environment, outreach and sport & recreation. This helps to create a sense of civic awareness and pride and also give the youth the opportunity to help those less fortunate than themselves. Their social consciousness programs have had tremendous successes in recent years due to the councilors' selfless commitment to their chosen causes.

Being on the JJC give the learners experience in debating, chairing meetings and speech writing, and it is a forum where they can meet other youngsters from varied backgrounds.

The school would like to thank our outgoing councilors on the management committee of the JJC, Adrian More and Tshepo Modikoe for their contribution as Chief Whip and Executive Member of the Sport & Recreation committee respectively. Thank you for representing the school with pride.

The following two grade 11 boys have been elected to serve on the JJC for 2010/2011:

Jabulani Sibiya - Mayor
Leighland Daniels - Speaker of the House

For those of you thinking you don't have what it takes to contribute to the school's social consciousness programme, the Heart of the Lion, let alone the JJC, the following quote should inspire you all to get involved and make a difference. You might know it from the Adidas ad campaign, not knowing it is the words of Laila Ali, the daughter of legendary boxer, Muhammed Ali:

Impossible is just a big word thrown around by small men who find it easier to live the world they've given than to explore the power they have to change it. Impossible is not a fact. It's an opinion. Impossible is not a declaration. It's a dare. Impossible is potential. Impossible is temporary. Impossible is nothing.

RCL EXECUTIVE 2010

The RCL plays a vital role in the running of the school, not only in administration, but also in dealing with class matters. It is one of the most important structures in the school, as it allows learners the opportunity to take on leadership roles and it teaches them to deal with issues that face their fellow learners and staff.

In addition, the RCL gives learners a voice, a voice to express themselves, express their needs, express their thoughts and most importantly it gives them the voice to bring change and to keep tradition.

Congratulations to the following learners whom have been elected onto the RCL Executive of the school for 2010:
